

After School Riding Program

New Session starting March!!

240 Andover Street
Georgetown, MA

Got a horse-crazy girl?

Twisdenwood Farm is offering an after school program designed to introduce children to the world of horses through fun and interactive activities. Children will gain confidence in how to handle and work around horses in a safe environment. Students will take an active role in helping to care for horses, creating a sense of responsibility.

Key learning areas:

- Safety
- Pony care and handling
- Grooming
- Breeds
- Anatomy
- Tack
- Horse communication
- Having fun!

This introductory program is designed to provide a low-keyed, relaxing environment for children to explore and gain confidence around horses

The program runs once a week for 6 weeks on Wednesdays from 3:30-5:30. Next session starts March 3rd! Session cost $200

Who should attend?

- Children who are interested in understanding horses from the ground up
- Children who want to meet others who share their love for horses
- Ideal for kids who are interested in getting exposure to horses in conjunction with a lesson program or precursor to lessons
- Girls between the ages of 6-11

About the Instructor

Jill Bowden specializes in beginner lessons and horsemanship for adults and children starting at age 5. Jill also offers private one on one lessons run for 1 hr. For more information contact Jill at 978-352-7091 Yorksmom@aol.com

